THE RULES

- System. Use the 2024 Player's Handbook (5.5 rules). Everyone plays a Human: the standard 2024 Human with Resourceful, Skillful and Versatile. No variant humans, no other species.
- Low magic, low fantasy. Hutchinson, Kansas, fall 2004. You are a regular senior with a secret class. Pick it at creation and keep it hidden. Its features stay dormant until you awaken (see page 3). Until then you have only your Human traits, your Background and your gear.
- Background is your clique. Your clique is your background (page 3): two skills, ability scores, an origin feat, its perk, baggage and enemy. There are no class loadouts. Your starting gear is your clique's loadout, listed on the school website.
- Numbers. Use the standard array (15, 14, 13, 12, 10, 8). Money is dollars. Before you awaken you have 8 + Constitution modifier hit points. Do not expect magic items or magic armor; football pads or a welding apron count as padded armor if the DM allows.
- House rule. Every 15 minutes of running at a stretch costs 1 level of exhaustion, and levels stack. Jocks ignore it.

THE THREE STANDINGS | SPEND 6 POINTS, NO STANDING ABOVE 4

Your standings are not ability scores. They describe your year in Hutchinson, and they change how you play more than your stats do. They set what you own, which doors open and which close. The DM can raise or lower a standing by 1 after a big event, such as a public failure, a rescue or a scandal. Each +1 standing with a crowd is -1 with its enemy.

FAMILY FINANCES (Lower 0 pts, Middle 2 pts, Upper 4 pts)

Tier	Day to day	Money	Doors open and closed
Lower	Hand-me-down clothes. Free lunch. A bike for transport. No phone and no car.	No spending money. To buy anything you need a job: a part-time job pays about $40 a week and takes one evening scene each session.	Closed: the country club, a prom ticket without a job, any trip past bike range. Open: street smarts. Advantage on checks to barter, scrounge or fix secondhand things.
Middle	New clothes. Packed or school lunch. Pick one: an old phone or a beater car. Otherwise you ride a bike.	Allowance of $20 a week.	Open: prom, school trips, movies. The country club only as someone's guest. A beater car breaks down on a natural 1 on any driving check.
Upper	Name-brand clothes. A newer car and a new phone.	$100 a week and a parent's card for one emergency each session.	Open: the country club, the Governors Row dinner circuit, trips out of town. Once per session, pay $50 to settle trouble or buy silence. Closed: sympathy. Teachers expect more and everyone expects you to pay.

GRADES (F 0 pts, D 1, C 2, B 3, A 4)

Grade	What it does
A	Teachers trust you. Advantage on Persuasion with faculty. Scholarship events, the records office and the advanced lab are open. Once per session a teacher gives you a pass or an extension, no roll.
B	Good standing. The library pass is yours, and teachers give you the benefit of the doubt on a tie.
C	Average. The minimum to play a sport, perform or hold office. Nothing opens and nothing closes.
D	Probation. A teacher can bench you from one event each session. Disadvantage on Persuasion when you ask faculty for a favor.
F	Grounded. No sports, performances or office. Detention at the start of each week, and teachers call home. Disadvantage on Persuasion with faculty.

POPULARITY (Invisible 0 pts, Overlooked 1, Known 2, Liked 3, Popular 4)

Level	What it does
Invisible	Nobody notices you. Advantage on Stealth in a crowd and on eavesdropping. No invitations, no rumors reach you, and you cannot run for office or court.
Overlooked	Advantage to blend in at school. You hear rumors only from friends, and invitations come through a friend.
Known	People know your name. You may run for a club office, and you hear 1 rumor each session.
Liked	People confide in you: ask the DM for 1 rumor each session. Party invitations arrive. You may run for homecoming court and class office.
Popular	Your word spreads: a rumor you start is believed across school. Every invitation reaches you. But you cannot hide: disadvantage on Stealth at school, and a public failure costs 2 standing.

BACKGROUND: YOUR CLIQUE

Your clique is your background. It gives two skill proficiencies, ability scores (+2 to one listed ability and +1 to another, or +1 to all three), one origin feat, its perk and baggage, and its starting loadout. Versatile gives you a second origin feat of your choice. Science counts as Nature.

Clique	Skills	Ability scores	Origin feat
Jocks	Athletics, Intimidation	Strength, Constitution, Charisma	Tough
Burnouts	Sleight of Hand, Stealth	Dexterity, Constitution, Charisma	Tavern Brawler
Popular Kids	Persuasion, Performance	Charisma, Dexterity, Constitution	Lucky
Band	Performance, Insight	Charisma, Wisdom, Constitution	Musician
Robotics	Investigation, Science	Intelligence, Dexterity, Wisdom	Crafter
Valedictorians	Investigation, History	Intelligence, Wisdom, Constitution	Skilled
Ag / FFA	Animal Handling, Survival	Wisdom, Constitution, Strength	Healer
Student Council	Persuasion, History	Charisma, Intelligence, Wisdom	Skilled
Hall Monitors	Perception, Insight	Wisdom, Constitution, Intelligence	Alert
Theater	Deception, Performance	Charisma, Dexterity, Intelligence	Musician
Goths	Arcana, Insight	Intelligence, Wisdom, Charisma	Lucky
Bullies	Intimidation, Insight	Strength, Constitution, Charisma	Savage Attacker

AWAKENING

Nobody starts with magic. Your class is a seed. You choose it on your sheet, but you cannot use any class feature, spell or subclass until the DM awakens you. That usually happens at a story event, such as the first siren, Homecoming night or a night underground. Once awake you gain your class features and your subclass, which is the secret you reveal as you wake. Choose any 2024 class: Barbarian, Bard, Cleric, Druid, Fighter, Monk, Paladin, Ranger, Rogue, Sorcerer, Warlock or Wizard. Magic stays rare and strange. Do not expect to find magic armor, magic weapons or shops that sell them.

ANCESTRAL TIES: HAVE FUN WITH YOUR PAST

Your power came from somewhere. Choose or roll a d12 for an ancestor whose story explains your class. When you awaken, the tie shows up in play as an heirloom, a rumor or an old enemy.

d12	Class	An ancestor who explains it
1	Barbarian	A great-uncle who came home from Normandy and never spoke of it. The rage is his grief.
2	Bard	A grandmother who sang in a church choir and honky-tonk bands, and could charm any room.
3	Cleric	A grandfather who preached in a country church, or the town midwife who never lost a mother.
4	Druid	A great-grandmother who farmed by the almanac and read the weather like scripture.
5	Fighter	A grandfather in the Marines or the Kansas Guard, or a sheriff's deputy who walked every road.
6	Monk	A Mennonite great-grandfather who lived by silence, routine and discipline.
7	Paladin	A family line that claims a Knights Templar ancestor, or a grandfather sworn to protect the town.
8	Ranger	A great-grandfather who scouted the Santa Fe Trail or trapped along the Arkansas River.
9	Rogue	A Prohibition bootlegger who ran liquor through the salt mine tunnels.
10	Sorcerer	A great-great-grandmother who practiced Voodoo in New Orleans before the family moved north. The blood remembers.
11	Warlock	A great-grandfather who signed a salt lease he should never have signed.
12	Wizard	A great-uncle's locked trunk of notebooks from the old salt company lab.
